To the Employees of our Army Audit Agency

Congratulations on your second place finish in “The Best Places to Work in the Federal Government” competition in the Agency Subcomponents category. This distinctive recognition from the Partnership for Public Service is a significant accomplishment for everyone at Army Audit Agency. Considering that 224 organizations participated and that you were the top-ranked Army organization of the 23 that participated, this achievement is even more noteworthy.

You make our Army proud through your outstanding talent and passion for your work. Your contributions – from assisting senior leaders to assess and mitigate risk to providing independent auditing services for the benefit of the American Soldier – makes a significant impact on many lives. And the fact that you do this mission so well makes your organization even more vital to our Army.

I commend you and wish you continued success. Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

John M. McHugh
