

The Auditor General Coin

Front

The Agency Logo
In 1961, the Institute of Heraldry developed a design of a device of unofficial use, which is the Agency seal we use today.
The torch (symbolizes knowledge and enlightenment)
The laurel (symbolizes strength, accomplishment & victory)
The blue border emphasizes loyalty and steadfastness.
Together, these symbols represent our loyal commitment to serve the Army by employing a workforce of intelligent, dedicated professionals who provide insight and value through our audit reports.

Service, Ethics and Progress are our core values.

Back

These are the locations where Army auditors have gone to conduct audits in service to the Army.

The world map represents our commitment to join Soldiers in service throughout the world.

Department of the Army logo represents who we are and what we do: We are the Army's internal auditors, serving American Soldiers, civilians, and their families; Army leaders; and our Nation.

Serving the American Soldier has been the heart of our mission since the Agency was established by executive order in 1946.
