

Tour of the Old Post Office Clock Tower

September 20, 2012

10:15am

Originally built in 1899, The Old Post Office Pavilion embodied the modern spirit that was sweeping the country. Today, our architecture and spirit of innovation continues to evolve and thrive. A highlight of the Old Post Office Pavilion is its 315 foot Clock Tower and unparalleled vistas. The Old Post Office Clock Tower also proudly houses the official United States Bells of Congress, a bicentennial gift from England celebrating the end of the Revolutionary War.

Offering a sweeping 360 degree view, National Park Service Rangers will be giving us a free Clock Tower tour! We will lunch afterwards in a nearby restaurant.

Take the Blue Line Metro to the Federal Triangle Metro stop.

Please RSVP by 13 September!
